Investigative Narrative
On 7/09/05 at approx. 1120 hrs. I was dispatched to the parking lot by the Building and Licensing office in reference to a complaint of political campaign signs placed in the back of a City of Rehoboth Beach vehicle belonging to the Building and Licensing office. Upon arrival, I contacted Joe Hill. He advised that the signs should not have been picked up. He advised that he had already tried to speak with the city manager, Greg Ferrese; however, he was busy. I advised him that I would speak with Mr. Ferrese about the matter. Hill advised that he was going to take pictures of the signs in the back of the vehicle. I spoke with Mr. Ferrese at approx. 1130 hrs., and he advised that the signs should not have been picked up, and he did not know why they had been. I had taken two polaroid photos of the signs that were in the back of the vehicle, and Mr. Ferrese held on to them. He advised me to give Hill permission to remove the signs from the back of the vehicle. I advised Hill that he could remove the signs, and he advised that he did not want to do that. He advised that he had already contacted the mayor, Sam Cooper, in reference to this matter as well. Hill advised that he was going to wait for Mr. Cooper to respond to his location. The mayor and the city manager were both advised of the complaint. Hill did not wish to do as the city manager suggested. No further action was taken.
